Hi!

I just wanted to say a quick 'thank you' for letting me upgrade my delivery to 1st Class - the parcel arrived on Monday, so I was really pleased!

As always, the crystals are lovely and have very good energy (unlike crystals I have bought elsewhere, which needed serious cleansing before I used them!).

8th September 2003

Dear Steve,

Thank you for the warning - now, that's what I call service! Actually, I did note from the photo that the surface is lightly polished, and that is fine by me - I do want it!!! By "unpolished", what I really mean is, this particular fossil hasn't been put through the heavy-duty processing that I find is normally given to goniatites, which ends up making them freestanding, but looking rather artificial. This one still looks like a fossil!

Cheers,

11th June 2003
